

AHS 2019 El Paso/ Juarez

A Call for Participation!

"Crossing Boundaries/Building Movements"

Mark your calendars for our first Bi-National conference now

We meet: Oct 30, 2019-November 3, 2019

El Paso, Texas, USA – Juarez, Chihuahua, Mex.

(University of Texas-El Paso and various Juarez locations)

AHS will go to the southern border in 2019a it is emblematic of race/class/gender divisions in our country today. Topics and cultural places will include "The Wall", immigration camps for children, family separation, refugees, and asylum, femicide, and international trade at a time of corporate dominance, environmental destruction and indigenous rights. We will also travel to the maquiladoras to see the results of globalization; we will hold Spanish language sessions in Juarez; we will hear from Mexican scholars and activists who are not permitted to cross into the U.S.; we will examine efforts to retain indigenous cultures in the face of globalization; and we will enjoy the Día de Los Muertos celebrations in the area on Nov.1st.

Please email all inquiries, presentation proposals and session/conference input to AHS2019elpaso@gmail.com